Marcia

From the earth to the sky came humanity's cry...... For freedom forever for

In the van with the rest, may our efforts be blessed...... For freedom forever for all...... And echoing clear, sounds a message of cheer...... Our country has all...... With duty well done, and a peace justly won...... With honor to answered the call...... With glory unfurled we will show to the both great and small...... Though loved ones we give that sweet liberty world...... No tyrant our cause may enthrall...... And never will we stop going live...... With pride in our hearts we'll recall...... The ones who did dare, with their
